

A MOMENT ON EARTH™

Moment Story Submissions

Friends, Amigos, ,أصدقاء, 好友, Amis, 友達, Freunde -

We are searching for stories from around the world of the most extreme emotional moments in your lives to include in Satellite Films' second DVDBook, A Moment on Earth: 12 Hours Later. We believe reading these stories juxtaposed with one another from around the world will create a powerful and unique experience.

To participate with us, follow these steps:

1. Choose An Emotion; Reflect on Your Life; Tell Your Story

Joy, Fear, Happiness, Sadness, Jealousy, Hate, Love, Awe, Hope... Choose an emotion, then reflect back on your life to determine when you had the most extreme experience with that emotion. Now tell us that story. Your goal is to tell the story in such a way that we feel as you did...

Examples of questions that could guide your story:

- What is the funniest thing that has ever happened to you?
- When in your life were you most afraid?
- In what moment were you happiest? Saddest?
- When were you most in awe of this world?

In the end, you pick the emotion, the question and the story you want to tell...

2. Submit Your Story

To submit your story, visit www.MomentOnEarth.com, click on "Mission Control" and follow links to "Submit a Moment Story." Story length is flexible, but recommended to be between 300 and 1400 words. Also include a short Bio about yourself and any projects of your own that you would like to promote (recommended 60 words or less).

By submitting your story, you grant us permission to display and promote it on our website with the option to publish it in the DVDBook. If your story is chosen to be among those published in the A Moment on Earth: 12 Hours Later, you will be paid upon publication of the story. The payment amount will be determined at that time.

Feel free to submit more than one story. Thank You, and enjoy the process!
